Meet online for 90 minutes
Discuss solutions to children’s behavior concerns in real-time with both community experts and parents
Learn evidence-based practices
Earn continuing education credits
Provides a safe place to work towards learning how to decrease behaviors of concern

Get information on current approaches to supporting your child in home, school, and community
Increase the capacity of parents and professionals to work together effectively
Improve individual and family outcomes through peer mentoring and family supports
Share individual and family successes
Support your child without leaving your home community